

The screenshot shows the Global DRO website interface. At the top left is the logo for Global DRO, which includes a magnifying glass over a pill. To the right of the logo is the text "Athletes, check your medications!". In the top right corner, there is a "Languages" dropdown menu. Below the header is a blue bar with the text "CHOOSE YOUR SPORT NATIONALITY". Underneath this bar are seven icons representing different countries: Canada (Canadian flag), United Kingdom (UK flag), United States (US flag), Switzerland (Swiss flag), Japan (Japanese flag), and Australia (Australian flag). Below these icons is an "Other" option with a globe icon. To the right of the nationality selection is a photograph of a swimmer in a red cap and goggles swimming in blue water. Below the nationality selection, there is a paragraph of text: "The Global Drug Reference Online (Global DRO) provides athletes and support personnel with information about the prohibited status of specific medications based on the current World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) Prohibited List. Global DRO does not contain information on, or that applies to, any dietary supplements. Visitors can search the Global DRO for specific information on products sold in the United Kingdom, Canada, the United States, Japan, Australia, and Switzerland. Global DRO is brought to you through a partnership between UK Anti-Doping (UKAD), the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES), Anti-Doping Switzerland (ADCH) and the United States Anti-Doping Agency (USADA). The Japan Anti-Doping Agency (JADA) and the Australian Sports Anti-Doping Agency (ASADA) are official Global DRO licensees."

Global DRO is quick and simple to use and will help you check any medications you have bought in the UK, USA, Canada, Japan, Switzerland and Australia.

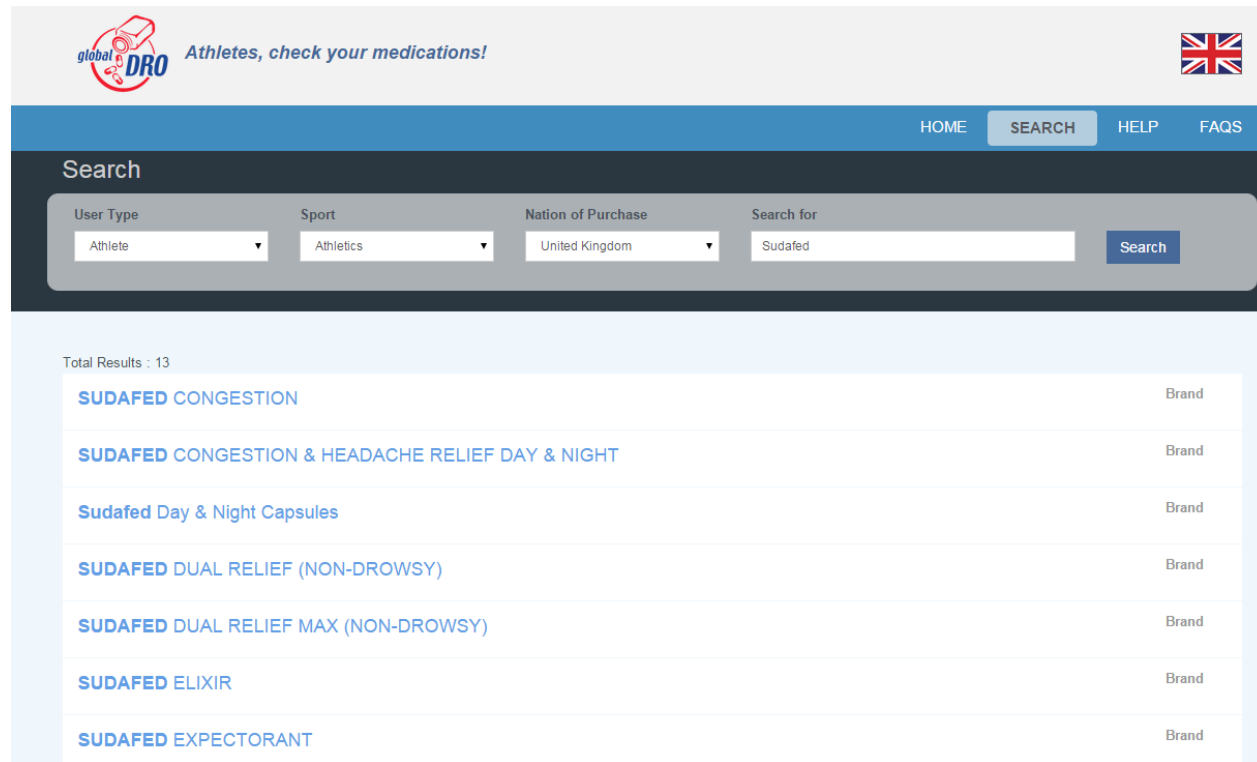

Select United Kingdom as your nationality and click on drug search.
