This is a busy and tidal part of the River Thames. You must visit boatingonthethames.co.uk to check tide times and safety advice before undertaking this trail.

Take in the landmarks of London on the very river from which the city sprang. The Romans built a port near to where London Bridge stands today, with Londinium growing around it.

1. Put in at the Putney public slipway and turn right, towards the centre of London. Pass Wandsworth Park before, after 1 mile, you spot the River Wandle entering to your right.

2. At around 2 miles spot Chelsea Creek on your left. Here Chelsea Harbour is on the left of the river, with Battersea to the right.

3. 3 miles in Battersea Park is on your right, with its famous Peace Pagoda. On the opposite side of the river you will see the grand building and grounds of the Royal Hospital Chelsea.

4. At 4.6 miles pass under Vauxhall Bridge with the distinctive MI6 building beside the river on the right. Continuing under Lambeth Bridge you’re now surrounded by London landmarks. Westminster is on the left and the London Eye to the right.

5. Wave for the tourists as you pass under Westminster Bridge. This is a very busy part of the river, be aware of other users. For the next couple of miles drink in the sights of London from a whole new viewpoint before you reach HMS Belfast moored opposite the Tower of London at just under 8 miles.

6. Pass under Tower Bridge and past St Katherine’s docks. Rounding a left hand bend in the river, you are beside Wapping with its riverside public houses and steps down to the Thames.

7. As you pass the Prospect of Whitby public house you are reaching the end of your journey. Your get out is on the left, onto a ramped pontoon, just beyond the curved walkway carrying the Thames Walkway around Shadwell Basin.

The Thames is home to over 125 different types of fish, and since efforts to improve the water quality in the 1960's there have been seals, porpoise, and even seahorses spotted there! What might you find?!

The Battersea Peace Pagoda was built by the Nipponzan Myohoji Buddhist Order as part of the 1984 peace year. It is one of 80 around the world and that promote world peace and unity.

The massive London Eye was originally built as a temporary attraction to celebrate the millennium, but proved so popular it was made permanent! With over 3.75 million people a year going for a spin, the 135m tall wheel is London’s most popular paid attraction!

If you look carefully you may see the Traitors Gate, where the Tudors took prisoners into the Tower of London by barge.

Towering over the rest of London, the Shard is the tallest building in the UK at 309.7m high! It has 306 flights of stairs and the 11,000 glass panels that make the facade would cover 8 football pitches!
